Section 4

a) I/we voluntarily submit all payments made on this offer.

b) The IRS will apply payments made under the terms of this offer in the best interest of the government.

If the IRS rejects or returns the offer or I/we withdraw the offer, the IRS will return any amount paid with the offer. If I/we agree in writing, the IRS will apply the amount paid with the offer to the amount owed. If I/we agree to apply the payment, the date the IRS received the offer remittance will be considered the date of payment. I/we understand the IRS will not pay interest on any amount I/we send with the offer.

c) The IRS will keep all payments and credits made, received, or applied to the total original tax debt before I/we send in the offer or while it is under consideration. The IRS may keep any proceeds from a levy served prior to submission of the offer, but not received at the time the offer is sent in.

If you currently have an approved installment agreement with IRS and are making installment payments, then you may stop making those installment agreement payments when you have been notified your offer has been assigned for consideration. If your offer is rejected or returned for any reason, your installment agreement with IRS will be reinstated with no additional fee.

If the Doubt as to Liability offer determines that you do not owe the taxes, or the IRS ultimately over-collected the compromised tax liability, the IRS will refund the over-collected amount to you, unless such refund is legally prohibited by statute.

d) To have my offer considered, I/we agree to the extension of time limit provided by law to assess my tax debt (statutory period of assessment). I/we agree that the date by which the IRS must assess my/our tax debt will now be the date by which my/our debt must currently be assessed plus the period of time my/our offer is pending plus one additional year if the IRS rejects, returns, or terminates my/our offer or I/we withdraw it. [Paragraph (l) of this section defines pending and withdrawal]. I/we understand I/we have the right not to waive the statutory period of assessment or to limit the waiver to a certain length or certain periods or issues. I/we understand, however, the IRS may not consider my/our offer if I/we decline to waive the statutory period of assessment or if I/we provide only a limited waiver. I/we also understand the statutory period for collecting my/our tax debt will be suspended during the time my/our offer is pending with the IRS, for 30 days after any rejection of my/our offer by the IRS, and during the time any rejection of my/our offer is being considered by the Appeals Office.

e) The IRS cannot collect more than the full amount of the tax debt under this offer.

f) I/we understand I/we remain responsible for the full amount of the tax debt, unless and until the IRS accepts the offer in writing and I/we have met all the terms and conditions of the offer. The IRS will not remove the original amount of the tax debt from its records until I/we have met all the terms of the offer.

g) I understand the tax I/we offer to compromise is and will remain a tax debt until I/we meet all the terms and conditions of this offer. If I/we file bankruptcy before the terms and conditions of this offer are completed, any claim the IRS files in bankruptcy proceedings will be a tax claim.

h) Once the IRS accepts the offer in writing, I/we have no right to contest, in court or otherwise, the amount of the tax debt.

i) The offer is pending starting with the date an authorized IRS official signs this form. The offer remains pending until an authorized IRS official accepts, rejects, returns, or acknowledges withdrawal of the offer in writing. If I/we appeal an IRS rejection decision on the offer, the IRS will continue to treat the offer as pending until the Appeals Office accepts or rejects the offer in writing. If I/we do not file a protest within 30 days of the date the IRS notifies me of the right to protest the decision, I/we waive the right to a hearing before the Appeals Office about the offer in compromise.

j) I/we understand under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) § 7122(f), my/our offer will be accepted, by law, unless IRS notifies me/us otherwise, in writing, within 24 months of the date my offer was initially received.

k) If I/we fail to meet any of the terms and conditions of the offer and the offer defaults, then the IRS may do the following:

- immediately file suit to collect the entire unpaid balance of the offer;
- immediately file suit to collect an amount equal to the original amount of the tax debt as liquidating damages, minus any payment already received under the terms of this offer;
- disregard the amount of the offer and apply all amounts already paid under the offer against the original amount of the tax debt;
- file suit or levy to collect the original amount of the tax debt, without further notice of any kind.

Terms (Continued)

The IRS will continue to add interest as provided in IRC Section § 6601 on the amount the IRS determines is due after default. The IRS will add interest from the date the offer is defaulted until we completely satisfy the amount owed.

I/we understand the IRS may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on my/our property

i) The IRS may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien to protect the Government's interest during the offer investigation. If the offer is accepted, the tax lien will be released when the terms of the offer agreement are satisfied.

I/we authorize the IRS to contact relevant third parties in order to process my/our offer

m) I/we understand that IRS employees may contact third parties in order to respond to this request, and I/we authorize the IRS to make such contacts. Further, in connection with this request, by authorizing the IRS to contact third parties, I/we understand that I/we will not receive notice of third parties contacted as is otherwise required by IRC § 7802(c).
